A very pretty home wedding occur-red on Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Monahan, 449 Twenty-sixth street, when Miss Anne Monahan and Mr. Robert F. Wal-ker were united in wedlock, Rev. John Edward Carver officiating. The par-lors were beautifully adorned with June roses where, in the presence of near relatives the two were united of many available of the year of the presence of the ring. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding supper was served. The young couple were the recipients of many expensive presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker will make their home in Ogden and after July 1 will be at home at 2927 Hudson avenue.

CLASS SOCIAL.

Friday night Miss Disey Eggleston and her mother charmingly entertained the Young Peoples' Bible class of the First Methodist church at their pretty home on Monroe avenue with thirty-five in attendance. From $:30 until 10:30 the time was filled with acceled text-temperal, music Miss vocal and instrumental music, Miss Nellie Ramey and the Misses Laird furnishing several numbers, followed by dainty refreshments. At 11:30 the jolly crowd departed for their homes, after unanimously declaring that it had been one of the most relightful evenings ever spent by the class.

KENSINGTON.
Mrs. M. Skeen delightfolly entertained the ladies of the Baptist Kensington at her home, 2170 Jefferson avenue, on Thursday afternoon. Fol-lowing the pleasant social hour most tempting refreshments were served, the ladies soon after repairing to their homes in pleasant anticipation future gathering with their charming hostess.

PIAZZA KENSINGTON.

Mrs. Joseph Chez was the hostess at a piazza Kensington on Thursday afternoon. Twenty ladles, fortified with summer needlework, responded to the invitations.

The commodious piazza was ar-ranged for the comfort of the guests with rugs, porch pillows and rockers, with jardinieres holding palms and ferns interspersed. Punch was served on the piazza.

At 5 o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room, where a two-course luncheon was served. Five small tables were arranged, with the center one beneath the chandeller, from which were suspended streamers of green crepe paper which extended to the walls on the several sides. Festoons of red June roses, tall vases of white gladiolas and fern scattered over the white linen completed the color scheme of red, green and white. A little surprise had been arranged for Mrs. Hess, who will soon leave Ogden for her home in Omaha. Each guest was given a Christy postcard and asked to write thereon a good wish for Mrs. Hess, after which the cards were collected and tied in the form of a memory

Mrs. Chez was assisted in the dining room by Mrs. O. M. Runyon, Mrs. C. A. Boyd and Mrs. W. V. Cassidy.

LADIES' AID.

A very pleasant meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church was held Thursday afternoon in the church parlors, about fifty ladies being present. Several piano and violin solos were rendered by Miss Bella Craig and Miss Rosamond Laird and delicious refreshments were served. The rooms were tastefully decorated with asparagus, ferns and red roses, At the business meeting a splendid report of the past year's work was given, showing that $500 had been raised and expended in improvements. of youth, that has cured so many work and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary scaled envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men and I am convinced it is the surest acting combination for the of deficient manhood and vigor failure ever put together.

I think i owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop drugging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I ful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest-acting restorative, upbuilding, SPOT-TOUCHING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Ten one hundred-pound bars of silver-lead bullion shipped from Murray, Utah, are now in the keeping of the police department of Ogden, the result of a discovery Friday night by T. E. Bennett, night watchman for the Utah Construction company, made alongside the Oregon Short Line tracks east of the Weber river bridge.

three men turning sand with their hands, and, upon approaching them, noticed that they were throwing the sand over shoe tracks that had re-cently been made theme. A hurried investigation disclosed the fact that the men had carried five bars of silver-lead bullion, and they admitted to him that they had five other bars cached a short distance away.

While talking to the three men two others, not suspecting Mr. Ben nett to be an official of the yards, came up and it soon became apparent that they were members of the gang interested in the theft. Mr. Bennett placed the men under arrest and took them to his office, a short distance away, where he telephoned the police
